Tammy Lo sounds like you had fun celebrating mid autumn festival :) bourbon instead of mooncake this year?

Kenneth Lo it's time for mooncake? oh, man, that makes me miss grandma. I just dreamed I was with BJ and the twins on xmas. we were talking about whether we should go play bball or stay inside and play risk.

Kenneth Lo and then dad makes fun of me for not knowing some random bit of trivia, and I have to reason with him, you know, the whole "I should know this because..." I think his teasing me is his way to join in and feel included.

wait. tammeimei? "mid-autumn"? we haven't even hit fall equinox yet.
